Jimmy,
Best of luck
to one of the cutest
and sweetest ~~girls~~ boys
I know. Although you're a little loud in class, I still think a lot of you. Best of luck,
Anne

1957 Carolinian

CAROLINA HIGH SCHOOL

GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

Foreword

The curtain of time has lowered for the last time on our first year in Carolina High School. The days of 1956-57 we spent inside her walls have gone and can never return. Memories never go. To turn time backward to those golden days and treasured memories, we, the Annual Staff, present to you The Carolinian of 1957.

ALMA MATER

O we love thee, Carolina
That so proudly stands today,
And we will sing thy praises;
As we go along our way.
May thy ideals high be lifted,
And thy light be bright and clear;

As we tread the path of knowledge,
To our goals that we seek here.
O let us cheer her on,
To victory and song;
And Carolina live forever more,
O cheers for days gone by;

We'll hold her honor high
And shout her praises ever to the sky;
For we love thee Carolina,
That so proudly stands today,
And we will not forget;
Though we be far, far away.

The SENIOR CLASS of 1957 is proud to be the first class to graduate from Carolina High School. The joys, the heartaches, the fun, and the struggles of being a senior are over. From here we begin a new life—a job in the business world, college, the armed forces, marriage—but whatever we do, Carolina High has helped to mold us into what we are.

SENIOR

CLASS

The senior play . . . the senior hayride . . . getting class rings and keys . . . measuring for caps and gowns . . . Senior Day . . . autographing annuals . . . senior testing . . . senior English (Oh! That term paper!) . . . choosing senior superlatives . . . senior class elections . . . all these we have tucked away as memories of Carolina High that will live with us forever.

ACTIVITIES

There is a club at Carolina for everyone, whatever his interests, talents, or abilities may be. The Student Council and its committees provide opportunities for those with leadership ability. For students whose school program includes part-time employment, there are the D.E. and D.O. clubs. The musically inclined have opportunities for expression in the band or chorus. Those who are looking to the future in a specific field find the F.F.A., J.H.A., and F.T.A. ideal for them. The Beta Club offers itself to students who have excelled in scholastic work. Then for those students who are outstanding in athletics, there is the Block C Club. Every student can find at least one of his interests reflected in the many clubs at Carolina High.

Student Council

Composed of officers elected by the student body and representatives chosen from each homeroom, the STUDENT COUNCIL is the connecting link between the students, the faculty, and the administration. The Traffic Force and the Sanitation Committees are appointed by the Student Council, and other committees are chosen as needed.

Junior Homemakers of America

The JHA, sponsored by Mrs Lettie Leininger, made its influence felt by participating in many school activities. Among them were making Christmas decorations, entertaining for the JHA County meeting in February, sponsoring the drop-in for Alumni Night, and decorating for the FFA Banquet. One project at Thanksgiving and Christmas was helping needy families with food and clothing. The highlight of the year was the fashion show presented in March as a going-away present for Mrs. Leininger.

Joanne Wauchope was nominated by the Carolina chapter for state secretary. Barbara McKinney and Norma Shook entered competition in the District Dress Review and Home Experience Contests. Both received awards of excellence.

Miss JHA was NORMA SHOOK elected on the basis of her achievements and contributions to the chapter.

Future Farmers of America

The FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA was organized nationally in 1928 to enable boys to study vocational agriculture. The foundation of the F.F.A. organization includes leadership, character, sportsmanship, cooperation, service, and citizenship.

The Carolina chapter played host to the County-wide Father and Son Banquet held February 22. The boys participated in the annual State Fair in October, and projects of the club included beautifying the campus, installing and removing bleachers on the athletic field, and beautifying homes. In addition, the boys participated in several local, state, and national contests.

Distributive Education

The D.E. CLUB is a nation-wide student organization made up of affiliated D.E. clubs, the purpose of which is to develop progressive leadership in the vocational and retailing fields.

The club attended the District D.E. meeting in November and the state convention March 4 and 5 in Columbia, where Ray Smith was awarded third place trophy for his Merchandise Information Manual.

The Carolina club was host to the Parker and Greenville clubs at the annual Employer-Employee Banquet in February.

Diversified Occupations

The D.O. CLUB is composed of boys who are engaged in the manufacturing and production of goods and whose school program includes curricular credit for work done in these fields.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Boyd.

uture Teachers of America

The Carolina F.T.A. CLUB boasts forty-two members, and their main project of the past school year was to establish a scholarship fund for prospective teachers.

Its purposes are to learn the opportunities of teaching, to cultivate qualities essential to every teacher, and to become acquainted with educational improvement organizations.

Beta Club

The BETA CLUB is a national organization composed of high school students of good mentality, outstanding character, above average achievement, and a co-operative attitude. Membership in the Beta Club is determined by the students's scholastic record, leadership, and participation in extra curricular activities.

Block "C"

The BLOCK C CLUB is made up of students who have earned a block letter either by participating in school sports or by accumulating points for band, cheerleading, or other school activities.

OFFICERS: President, JAMES LYDA; Vice President, BRUCE SUGGS; Secretary-Treasurer, NORMA SHOOK.

Traffic Force

The TRAFFIC FORCE is a branch of the student council under the chairmanship of James Lyda. He and the members have worked with the students to ease the traffic situation in the halls and lunchroom for the past year.

Girls' Sanitation Committee

The Girls' Sanitation Committee did a good job all year seeing that all rules pertaining to sanitation were carried out.

Boys' Sanitation Committee

Also working in connection with the Student Council, the Boys' Sanitation Committee kept students from damaging school property and made sure all the sanitation rules were upheld.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS, 1st Row, seated: Milford Payne, Nick Gossett, Vincent Ducker, Tommy Shaw. 2nd Row, seated: Jimmy Chambers, Harold Gillespie, Gerald Gibson, Dickie Hunley, David Seeger. Standing, left to right: Thomas Everett, Jimmy Garren, James Lyda, Donald Baker, Bruce Suggs, Willie Lee, Douglas Hawkins.

Mr. Isler and Mr. Hudgens worked with the committee.

Band

The BAND, under the direction of Mr. Gordon Casad, held its rehearsals during school, and afforded many students an opportunity to learn to play a musical instrument.

The band added spirit to football games and participated in various other school programs including pep meetings, P.T.A., and the Christmas program. The Band Clinic held at Parker in April and the spring concert were highlights on the Carolina Band agenda.

One . . . two . . . three . . . blow!

Choral

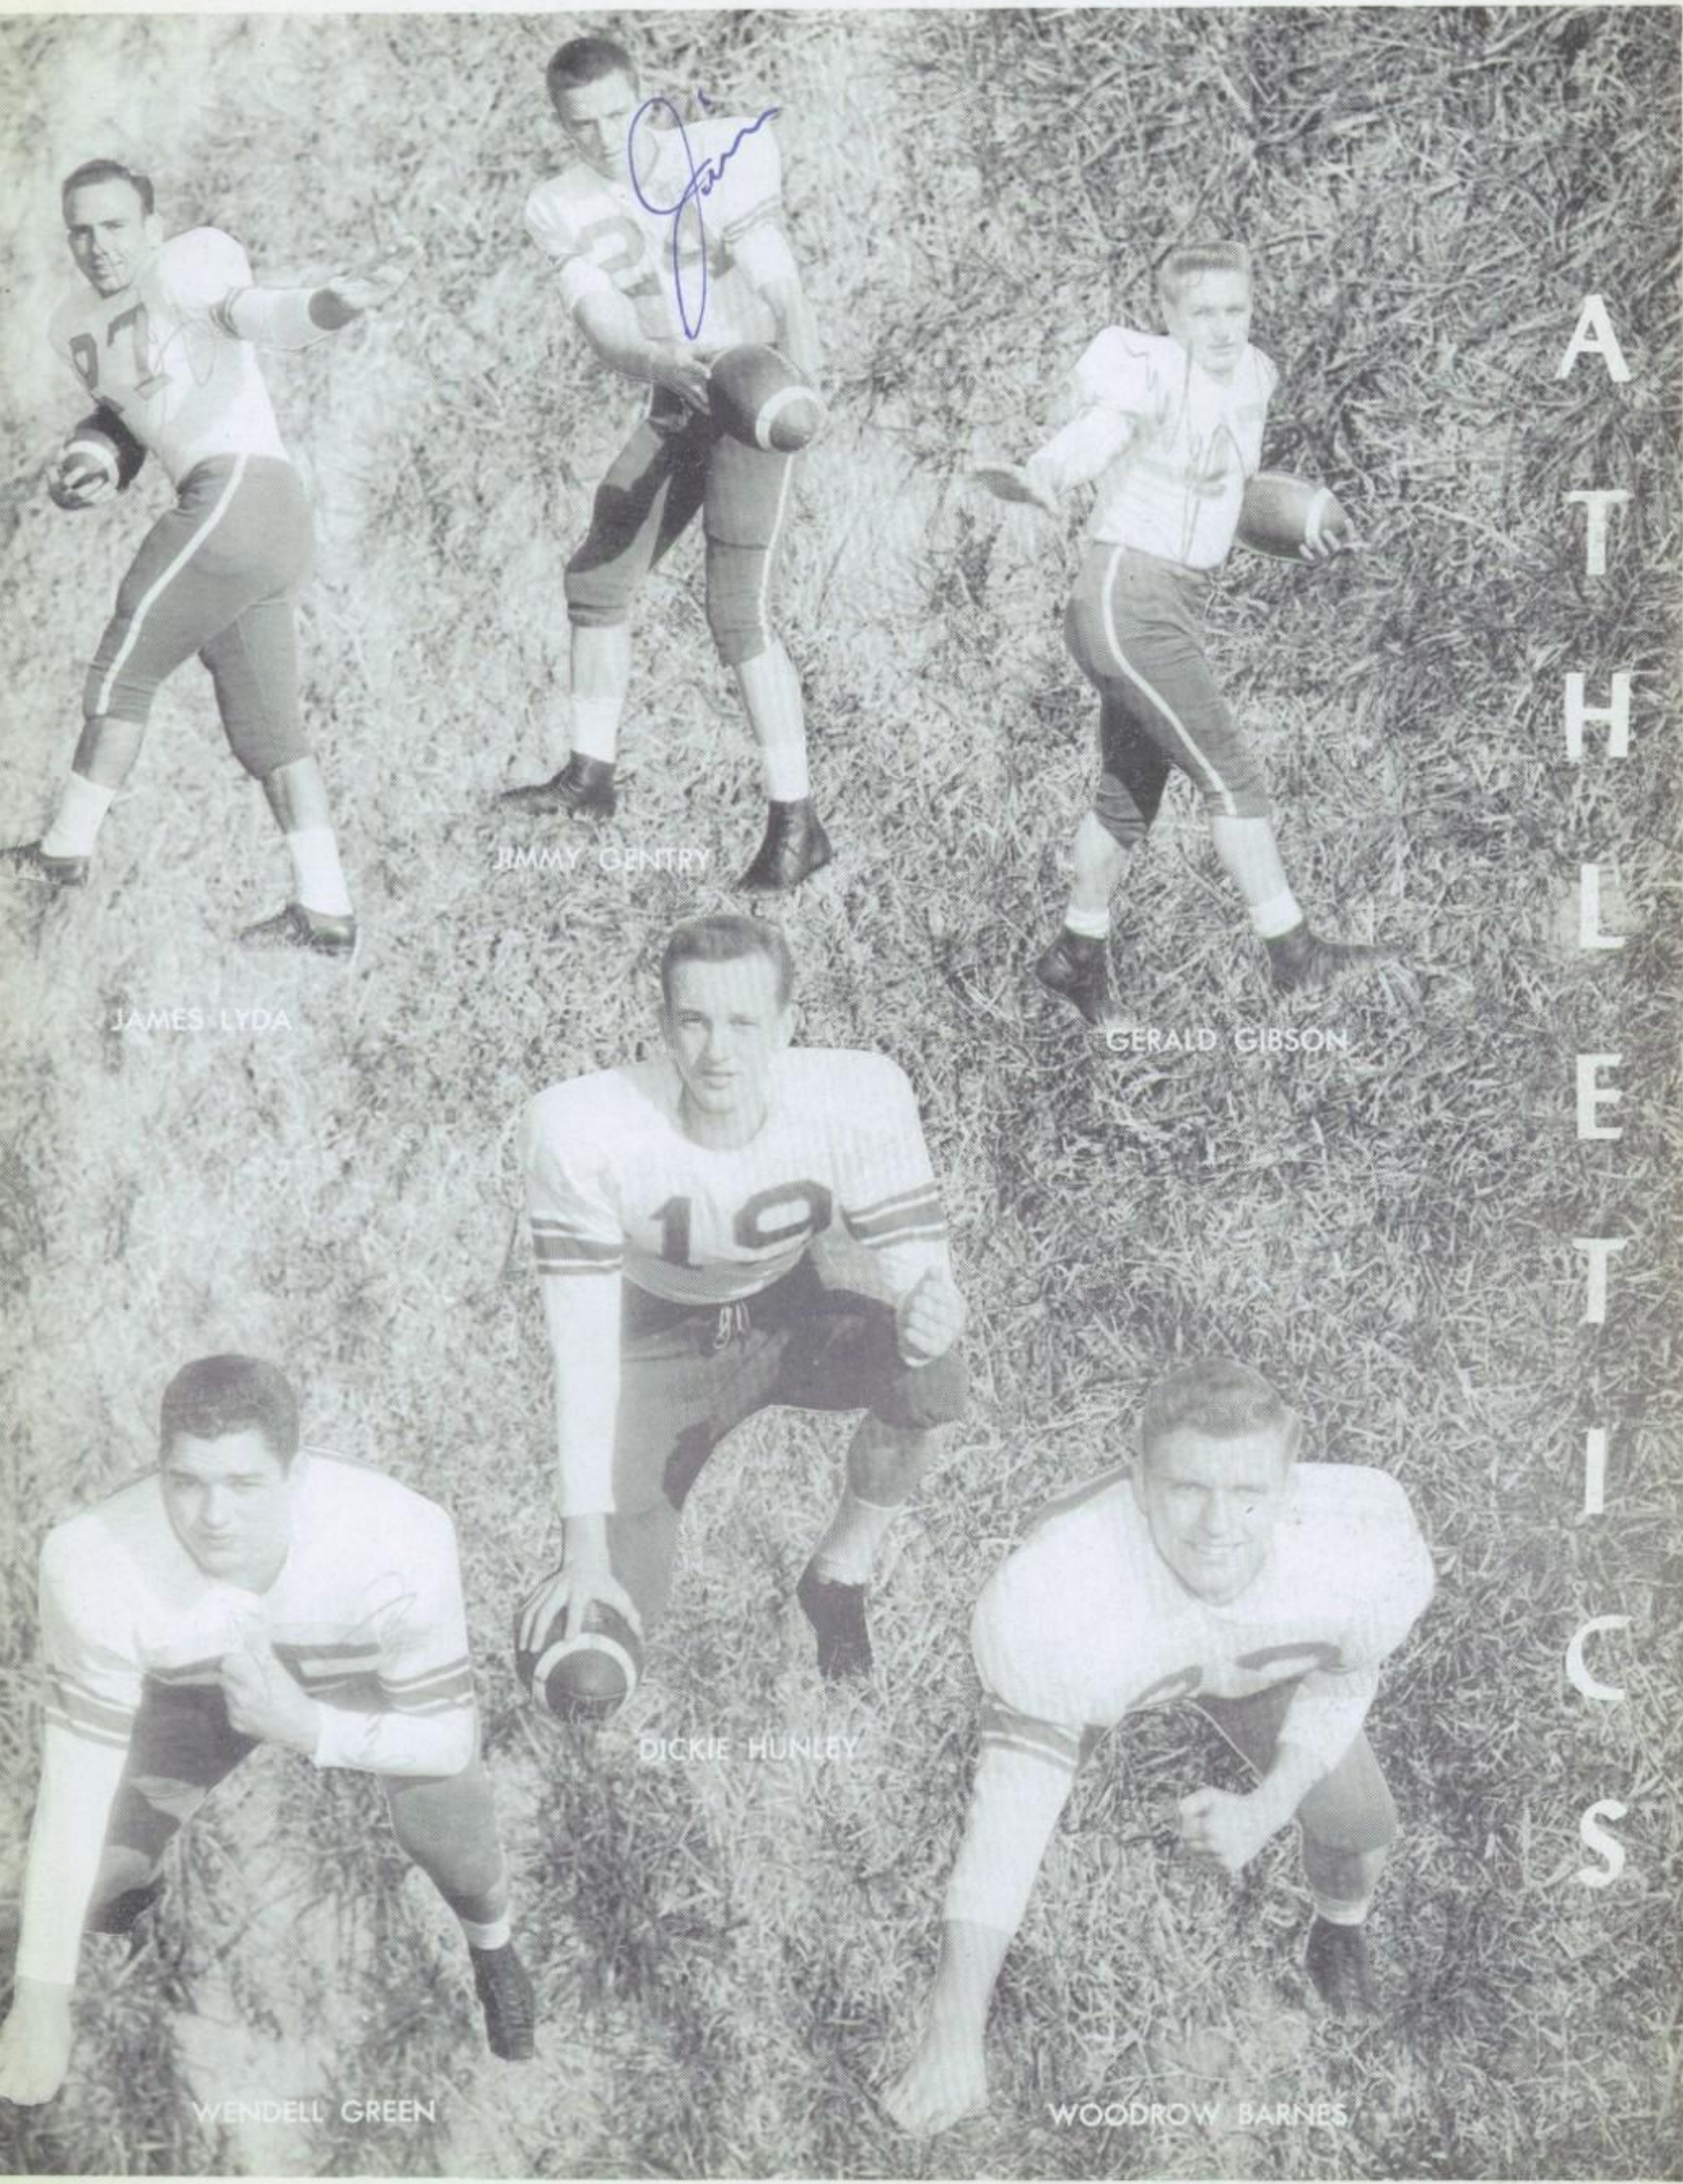

The CAROLINA CHORUS, under the capable direction of Mr. Warren Springs, performed at various school functions, which included the Christmas program and P.T.A. meetings. A highlight of the year was the Choral Clinic held February 19-22 at Greenville High. Everyone enjoyed singing under the direction of Dr. J. Marion McGill . . . and the two-day vacation from studies!

Cheerleaders

On the job at every game, the cheerleaders, with Becky Kennemore as head cheerleader, did a good job of arousing school spirit and cheering the Trojans to victory. The four new squad members, who were elected in time to lead cheers for the Alumni Game, were Jeannie Hudspeth, Miriam Garrison, Gerald Davis, and Leon McWhite.

The squad was represented at the County All-Star football game in Greer by Pat Burrell and by Jeannie Hudspeth at the All-Star basketball game.

Dear Mr. Baker:

I am in receipt of your letter and photographs of the contestants of your beauty contest.

It is a great honor and a pleasure to be chosen to judge your contest, and if it were up to me I would like to make each and every one a winner. However, as I can only choose one girl from each group as the winner, I have made my selections as marked on the back of the photographs.

Thank you very much for this pleasure, and my very best wishes.

Sincerely,

Perry Como

you and being with you. I hope you will always have the best of everything life has to offer. I hope
I never do anything to hurt you, Joni.
I believe we feel the same way
about things - I think you know what I mean. I hope so, anyway. Good luck always!
And remember - never give up!!! you can't ever win that way.
Don't ever forget me,
please.
Love always,
Pat

I can't only have enjoyed knowing you
this past year. May you always succeed in life
because you deserve it.
Love, Judy

Elizabeth, It has certainly been a pleasure knowing you this past year. We have certainly had a wonderful year. Especially when we went to town and a patrol man followed me
& you over to the school.
Man I can always say so far that this has been the best year of our school years. I hope I will be able to see you during the summer.

Jimmy,
I am glad to meet you and hope I will see
you again sometime.
You are lots of fun
and I like you very much. Love always
